

ZAYTUNA COLLEGE

Zaytuna College Fall 2022 Admissions Essay Questions

The application questions are designed to give the Admissions Committee an opportunity to assess your interest in and preparation for attending Zaytuna College. Your first two essays may be as long as 1000 or as short as 600 words. In the last essay, however, limit yourself to 300-400 words. Regardless of length, your task is to produce your best writing. A representative sample of your writing will show the Admissions Committee how well you express yourself and give some understanding of the quality of your mind and thinking.

In addition to what you say about yourself and your topics of discourse, committee readers will be profoundly aware of the mechanics of your writing, especially grammar and syntax, the logical organization of your thoughts, and whether your style of communication is well calibrated to what you have to express.

Lastly, the essay prompts are designed to stimulate in the best applicants a genuine spirit of reflection about what the Zaytuna College curriculum may offer them. In that light, I hope you enjoy writing these essays as much as we look forward to reading them. All the best to you.

Sincerely,
Faisal Hamid
Director of Admissions
